You are to each individually write and present a speech centring around the theme of protest focusing on texts studied in class and additional research.

Firstly, you are required to define what a protest is and why they happen/their purpose.

Secondly, explain the elements of protest evident in ‘The Hunger Games’. Refer to quotes and examples as you explain how protest elements are represented throughout the text.

Thirdly, you must choose ONE (1) of the following two (2) options below to include in your speech.

1 – Current protest
   - Explain and describe a current protest happening somewhere in the world
   - Who is involved (individual/groups of people)
   - Explain why the protest is happening
   - What is the purpose of the protest
   - What is your opinion on the protest and why

2 – Person of protest
   - Who is the person of interest
   - Where are they from
   - What protest(s) were they involved in and how
   - Why are they famous/infamous
   - Do you believe in their protest(s)/actions and why

Your speech is to last FOUR (4) minutes

You are to submit a hard copy of your written speech

Due date: Wednesday 28 October 2015 (Term 4, Week 4)

*Total: 20 marks

I, ____________________________ name of student, acknowledge that I have received notification of Year 10 English Assessment Task Protest Speech. The due date is Wednesday 28 October 2015. The notification of this task was distributed on ______________________________.

Signed: __________________________

Date: __________________________